Nomura Becomes Official Supporter of Olympic and Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020 in Category of Design, Engineering and Construction Services for Interior Spaces and Exhibition Spaces

June 4, 2018, Tokyo – Nomura Co., Ltd., announced today that it has signed a contract to become an Official Supporter of the Olympic and Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020 in the category of Design, Engineering and Construction Services for Interior Spaces and Exhibition Spaces.

Since its establishment in 1892, Nomura has remained true to the founder’s commitment to partnering in prosperity through its passion for perfection. The company has been listed on the First Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange since 2005. Nomura has evolved over the years into one of Japan’s most foremost designers, constructors, operators, and managers of architectural spaces for everything from large commercial complexes to museums and science centers.

Nomura’s passion for perfection extends to fostering sporting excellence. The company directly assists para powerlifting athlete, Tetsuo Nishizaki, who lifted 136 kilogrammes in the 54-kilogramme category to become the Japanese record holder and represented his nation in the Rio 2016 Paralympic Games. It is also an Official Supporter of the Japanese Para Powerlifting Federation.

Commenting on the Official Support agreement, Nomura President & CEO Shuji Enomoto said that, “We will endeavor through the Tokyo 2020 Sponsorship Programme to contribute to the success of the Tokyo 2020 Games and a better world by creating comfortable spaces that showcase the splendors of Japan for all of the athletes and domestic and international visitors to Tokyo. At Nomura, all of us stand ready and united to uplift and enchant at the Games and beyond by pursuing a never-ending passion for creative perfection.”
